Hi everyone!
Hope you are all well. I'm away the rest of this week so i wont see you all until term 4 starts.

I have sent your day books to OfficeWorks jOONDALUP to be bound and Shanny has already collected them. You will note i have added an example of an observation and the analysis of learning tip sheet too for your convenience.

I just wanted to remind you all that everyone with a cert 3 is expected to do observations, causal educators can contribute too. Trainees can also try to write ...

Hi everyone! Please see the newsletter attached for July, yes July!
I am going to post at the end of the month so its different to the directors newsletter posts!
Thanks for all your hard work!

Hi everyone!
Ive just had a look through your program daybooks, to avoid the confusion I will refer to them as daybooks (given that its an actual book) and the Storypark post, I will refer to as daily story.

First of all, id love to say thank you to you all for embracing this new method of documenting our curriculum. You have all approached it with optimising and it seems, after discussions with educators, that it is almost too good to be true!

There are a couple of things id like to remind you of or point out for future referenc...
