Hey all!

Halloween is quick approaching. What ideas do you have to celebrate Halloween in your room?

You can use the Halloween theme to convey so much meaningful learning through games, art and craft and even sensory play.

To all rooms implementing the school readiness program:

Next week, Ann would like to do a zoom meeting for all educators leading these rooms for us to engage in some collaborative reflection in regards to how we can make our school readiness program more suited for the needs of the children, visible and stand out against the rest.

Please comment below the day and time that suits you best and starting putting some ideas together, ALL educators can give input towards this, even if they work in younger age groups, its great to draw on the experiences and ideas from all our ...
